PSAC Local 555 stands in solidarity with PSAC Local 901- Queen's University Post-Doctoral Fellows- in their fight for a fair increase in their base salary and yearly wage increases.

As Academic Workers we admire PSAC Local 901's strength, in fighting for better conditions for precarious academic workers. And, we share their frustration with Academic Employers who sustain exploited pools of labour for profit.

We "Shame" Queen's University, as an employer they should be providing equal working conditions. Post-Doctoral Fellows should have the same access to Childcare benefits; guaranteed access to healthcare services; professional development, as other employees do.

We support the PSAC Local 901 struggle and believe that the values of equality and justice are reasonable demands and rights we should all fight for.

PSAC Local 901-Represent!

In solidarity,

PSAC Local 555
