

Call for Nominations: Executive Positions

The Chief Returning Officer of PSAC Local 901 is pleased to announce that we are currently accepting nominations for the following Executive Committee positions for the term 2021-2022:

- President
- Vice-President Community
- Vice-President Research Assistants
- Vice-President Postdoctoral Scholars
- Co-Chief Steward (1)
- Co-Chief Steward (2)
- Equity Officer
- Health and Safety Officer
- Treasurer
- Information Officer

The duties of each position are outlined in the bylaws. All executive positions will be compensated at 531 CAD/month, and the President will be compensated at 800 CAD/month. This will be an opportunity for you to work to support, represent and advocate for our union members and represent PSAC 901 in the local labour movement and our broader community.

Only members of Unit 2 (Postdoctoral Scholars) may vote for the position of Vice-President Postdoctoral Scholars. Only members of Unit 1 Research Assistants may vote for the position of Vice-President Research Assistants. In the event of one candidate being nominated, an acclamation will be declared. Where no candidates are nominated, these positions will remain vacant.

Nominations for this position will be accepted in advance of the AGM. If you wish to self-nominate before the AGM, please send Joshua McEvoy (Chief Returning Officer) an email at joshua.mcevoy@queensu.ca with the following information:

1. your name;
2. department;
3. employment position;
4. a brief statement (no more than five-hundred (500) words) about the candidate's platform and previous Union experience.

Early nominations will be posted on the PSAC Local 901 website before the meeting. Voting will happen asynchronously after the Annual General Meeting. You may also nominate yourself at the floor of the meeting.

For more information about these roles, read section 5.1.3 of the PSAC Local 901 bylaws located here: <http://psac901.org/psac-901-bylaws/>
