

PSAC Local 901

Bargaining Communiqué #1

Unit 1

Subject: Negotiations start for TAs, RAs and TFs!

On June 30, 2021, our union's Bargaining Team met with Queen's University to begin negotiations for a new Unit 1 Collective Agreement. After a round of initial introduction, both teams exchanged their respective proposal documents, and explained the rationale behind each proposal. Local 901 also presented our proposal for a Letter of Understanding that outlines Return to Work protocols for TAs, RAs, TFs and Postdocs.

The next meeting date has been scheduled for July 16th.

PSAC Local 901's Bargaining Team:

Astrid HOBILL, President of Local 901, Teaching Assistant
Rohit REVI, VP Research Assistants, Teaching Fellow
Brittany BONNIS, Information Officer, Research Assistant
MaryAnne LAURICO, PSAC Regional Representative
Darren PACIONE, PSAC Research Officer
Laneydi MARTINEZ ALFONSO, PSAC Negotiator

Queen's University's Bargaining Team:

Michael VILLENEUVE, Director, Faculty Relations
Jada McNAUGHTON, Senior Labour Relations Advisor
Jordyn HARPELL, Academic Labour Relations Coordinator
Chris DeLUCA, Associate Dean, School of Graduate Studies

Keep an eye out on our website psac901.org for updates and stay in the loop as we work towards a renewed and improved Collective Agreement!

Questions or thoughts? Email Brittany Bonnis at info.officer@psac901.org